The WIND
will not blow the week
of Thanksgiving!

Please have your ads to Sue by

The Wind staff wish all of you a happy and healthy Thanksgiving!

Thank You First Responders

and concerned townspeople
for coming to my aid Tuesday afternoon. Despite falling flat on my face I am fine. Moreover I am overwhelmed by the care and concern of the Vinalhaven community. The kindness and care I received was more than
I could have asked for.

Thank you all again for your love and support.

COVID-19 (Coronavirus)

How do I talk to my loved ones about the importance of staying home?

Convincing your loved ones to stay home can be a challenge. Here are some tips on having a conversation about staying home and staying healthy.

Do

Do make it personal

Staying home
now means going to the reunion next year!

I know you
want to help.

Do reassure them they are not alone.

Social distancing doesn't mean social isolation.

Let's
try video chatting!

Don't

Don't blame

What were you thinking?

Don't exaggerate or minimize.

I hope
we all survive
this.

It's not that bad.

COVID-SAFE THANKSGIVING

Traditional Thanksgiving gatherings with family and friends are fun but can increase the chances of getting or spreading COVID-19. The safest way to celebrate Thanksgiving this year is to keep your gathering limited to just your household or pod*.

Lower Risk

- Staying home; traveling only for essential purposes
 - Restricting close contact (15+ minutes) to only those from your household or pod*
 - Wearing a mask in public
 - Washing your hands often
 - Cleaning and disinfecting surfaces
 - Celebrating outside or inside with plenty of ventilation

Higher Risk

- Traveling off and to the island (Note: testing and quarantine are required when traveling to and from any state other than NH or VT)
 - Being in close contact with those not in your household or pod
 - Not following CDC Guidelines
 - Celebrating indoors with limited ventilation

*A pod is a small group of a few people, committed to abiding by Maine and CDC COVID-19 safety guidelines and who limit their close contacts to only each other in order to mutually protect their health.

Kids Trivia

1. How many days are in a Leap Year?
2. What is a group of lions called?
3. A scientist who studies rocks is called a what?

Mr. Ganoza teaching in Ghana, Africa

This week our "Meet the New Teacher" interview is with Mr. Dan Ganoza, the high school science teacher at Vinalhaven School. He moved quite a few times growing up, attending middle school in Hawaii. A favorite memory of island life was going fishing with his buddies. He graduated from John Jay High School in San Antonio, Texas. During that time he played soccer and rugby. He graduated from the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, and then flew C-130's with the Air Force for 22 years. Mr. Ganoza also graduated with a Master's Degree from the University of Arkansas, and a Master's Degree from Regis University in Denver. Is that why the Denver Broncos are his favorite sports team?

Mr. Ganoza has two daughters and a son, and being able to be close to them is part of the reason he chose to become an educator. Before coming to Vinalhaven, he taught in Woodland Park, Colorado. He mostly loves living in Vinalhaven, but misses some of his favorite restaurant choices!

Answers to weird questions? Mr. Ganoza, would you rather wear stripes, plaid or dots? "Stripes." If you were president, what would you order for breakfast. "Ham and cheese omelet with extra cheese." If you could have any vehicle for free? "A luxury yacht." What is your credit card, social security and driver's license number? "No answer..."

Ask Etta

In these confusing times, we all have questions. To that end, please welcome the Wind's new advice column. Our own, Dear Etta will answer all comers at the email address below.

When you don't know who else to call. Ask Etta...

Dear Etta,

A local man asked me out on a date...an afternoon hike followed by dinner at his house. 45 minutes before our date was to start, he texted to tell me he decided to go hunting instead. Now he's asking me to reschedule at my convenience. What should I do?

Signed,
Just Wondering

Dear Just Wondering,

What are you wondering? Whether this guy is more interested in sitting in a tree stand waiting for a deer than a date with you? Whether he forgot it was deer season when he made plans for your date? Whether he knew all along that he would make it your job to make a date with him? Or maybe you're wondering why you're still thinking about this 'almost date'? Take a walk on any one of our beautiful trails. Make yourself a nice dinner. And stop wondering.

Always,
Etta

P.S. Did he get a deer?

"The Leading Business Houses of Vinalhaven"

V. T. Follet

Blacksmithing and Jobbing Work

In reviewing the business interests of Vinalhaven it would not do to overlook the horse-shoeing establishment conducted on Main Street by Mr. V. T. Follett. The building occupied is well adapted to the purpose of the business in hand and is equipped with blowers and all modern tools and appliances. Mr. Follett is an experienced and practical mechanic and thoroughly understands all details of the business. He pays particular attention to the shoeing of lame, interfering, overreaching and tender-footed horses and guarantees the work to be skillfully done. All kinds of general jobbing is done at short notice while the prices asked are moderate. Only skilled and capable assistant are employed and all work is under the personal supervision of Mr. Follett himself. Mr. Follett has been identified with this business for 16 years and from the start he has enjoyed a lucrative and rapidly increasing business patronage.

Courier-Gazette June, 1901

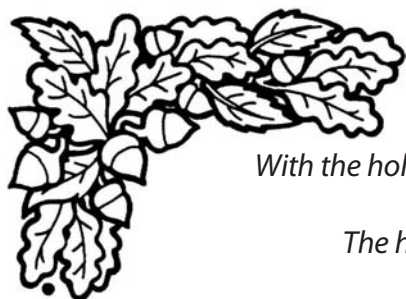

Lane & Libby are shipping large lots of Russian sardines to the western and southern trade. They have just received an order for ten thousand kegs to be delivered in New York next month. They have on hand ready for packing over fifty hogsheads. The sardines are put up in small kegs and flavored with spices of various kinds. The management of this department is under our well-known fish commission dealer, R. T. Carver, who thoroughly understands the business in all its details.

Vinalhaven Echo December 1, 1887

A New Buoy

Capt. Otis Ingraham of the City of Bangor has sent a communication to George E. Wingate, commander United States Navy, Portland, asking for a buoy at Sleeper's Point, opposite Sheep Island bar buoy, in the Mussel Ridge Channel. This would not only be a great guide to the steamers, but of great help to the innumerable vessels passing in and out of this channel daily. Capt. Ingraham has been instrumental in securing the majority of buoys, tripods and other marks along Penobscot River Bay and the Mussel Ridges.

Reading Online Wind on a Kindle

Norbert Leser shared his steps for converting the online Wind into a more easily readable version on a Kindle.

1. Download the wind to your computer/device
2. Create an email message addressed to your Kindle account
3. Subject of the email is the word "Convert"
4. Attach the wind PDF to the email body (no other text)
5. Send email
6. After a short while open your Kindle app and synchronize - the Wind should appear in your library!

To find the Kindle email account mentioned above, you need to open the Kindle app and go to 'App Settings' in your menu at Kindle's home page. It lists 'Send to Kindle Email Address' - copy/ paste that address and you're all set.

Three Sisters and a Friend

Went to visit Jane the other day, a bridge game was afoot. Jane and Maryann vs Dot and Marge Peterson. The following transpires..... Betting - 1 Club - 2 Spades - 3 Diamonds - pass - pass-pass, now the fun begins. After a few seconds the betting black board is whipped clean. Maryann says "Who won" the three sisters point at one another. Marge stares at the three sisters with her mouth slightly open in astonishment, after all now it's been 10 seconds since the bidding ended. Now Dot says, "What's trump?" One sister says, "Spades." The other "Diamonds." I look at Marge she hasn't uttered a word and moreover her expression hasn't changed. The card game ensues. Dot lays down her hand, wait a minute! Jane was supposed to lay down her hand. Even though everyone has seen her cards Dot quickly picks them up and says with a slight giggle "Shush , no one noticed." The game nears conclusion and Maryann says, "How many cards do you have left, I have three?" Dot says "two." Jane chimes in "I have one." All three look under the table for the non-missing card. I turn to Marge and say, "How can you play cards like this?" Marge replies with a smile, "That's the third time today they have dealt the cards wrong, but they are so much fun to watch."

YOUR HELP, THANKS!

It is working! Following CDC guidelines, we are collecting returnable bottles and cans in the town parking lot

(not yet at the dump) to benefit Vinalhaven Eldercare Services.

Please deposit clean returnables (no milk jugs) in the totes or bring bags of mixed returnables to the bin on the right.

Please do not deliver directly to the Homestead as we need to keep items "quarantined" for three days before sorting on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Round Up for the Grange

The Grange is a family and community organization with its roots in agriculture established in Vinalhaven in 1908.

The Grange provides agriculturally related programs, community events and dances for the pleasure of the community.

The Grange needs funds to repair the building, for heat, landscaping, and potable water.

Please contribute to our efforts and join us!

Round Up for the Grange will begin Monday, November 2 at Carver's Harbor Market.

Special thanks to Carver's Harbor Market and to all who round up to benefit the Grange!

Pleasant River Grange #492

We would like to thank those who are rounding up for the Grange at Carver's Harbor Market. It will go towards many necessary maintenance and improvement projects. We sincerely appreciate the help you have given so far, and we hope some of you may be able to give a little more.

We are in the process of upgrading the heating system, getting water from the hand dug well into the building, and are also dealing with large outdoor projects. Unfortunately, our coffers are in no way able to deal with even one of these projects. We are, therefore, asking our friends for additional help. If you could, please send your donation (any amount will be greatly appreciated) to:

Elephants And Dogs

So we're hunkering down again, but I have food and shelter and cannot complain cannot think I cannot do this not when there's a bird outside reminding me to sing or a dog or cat wanting to be let in, the clinging of an egret to a fish or golden seaweed to a boulder in the tide

Weather may dictate what I wear but does not tell me what to feel when I open my eyes to a new day, a day filled with possibility and gulls screeching, pines roaring in wind, fawns chasing mothers discovering a den for survival or the snake hole made deeper as the cold climbs in

In shutting off the water to the barn this year I remark to my self that I can't shut off my heart or the way I cry for friends or the love from small children, can't shut away laughter or helping a neighbor I can change it up on any cloudy day just by moving from house to field as for the noise the world is making now, I can turn the volume down and tend my corner of the hood Always loved the saying 'Elephants keep walking while dogs keep barking'.
