Dear Dog and Cat Owners,

In accordance with the laws published by the State of Maine: Animal Welfare Laws and Regulations: Title 7, §3921 - A dog may not be kept within the limits of the State, unless the dog has been licensed by its owner or keeper in accordance with the laws of this State.

In accordance with Title 7, § 3916 1-A, - A person owning or keeping a dog shall, within 30 days after the dog attains the age of 6 months, cause the dog to be vaccinated against rabies and shall have booster vaccinations administered periodically in accordance with rules adopted by the Commissioner of Health and Human Services under section 3922, subsection 3.

If you own a cat, a license is NOT required by the State of Maine at this time, but a Rabies Vaccination is absolutely required under Title 7, § 3916.

Recently I received a list of unlicensed dogs. I will be mailing notices to owner's in case they forgot. So, with that in mind, I am putting forth this notice for all dog and cat owners.

Thank you to the owners that have licensed their dogs. To all other owners of dogs, even if you have for some unknown reason, not ever licensed your dog, I am provided with information in regard to all dogs that have been rabies vaccinated after 6 months old. Because you have never licensed your dog does NOT exempt you.

As of September 15th, 2020, no verbal warning will be given, and no written warnings will be given! I will have given enough time and notice for you as the responsible owner to comply with these State of Maine mandated Laws or Regulations. So what I am saying is please DO NOT put me in a position that requires me under the guidelines and laws that I am directed to enforce, to issue a summons to any owner who is not compliant to these laws or regulations, as I will!

In addition, all dogs brought to the island by summer residents or visitors who are on the island for a period that exceeds 10 days MUST license their dog at the Vinalhaven Town Office, even if they are licensed elsewhere.

§3950-A. Official refusal or neglect of duty

1. Violation. A mayor, municipal officer, clerk, town or city manager, administrative assistant to the mayor, town or city councilor, dog recorder of unorganized territories, constable, police officer, sheriff or animal control officer commits a civil violation if that person refuses or intentionally fails to perform the duties imposed by:

A. This chapter; B. Chapter 719; C. Chapter 720; D. Chapter 721; E. Chapter 725; F. Chapter 727.

2. Penalty. A person who violates subsection 1 commits a civil violation for which a fine of not less than $50 and not more than $500 and costs may be adjudged.

3. Investigation. The commissioner, at the commissioner's own instance or upon written complaint made to the commissioner by another person, shall investigate an alleged refusal or neglect of duty by a municipal officer.

4. Prosecution. The commissioner shall direct proceedings, actions, and prosecutions to be instituted to enforce all laws relating to animals and to the liability of municipal officers and their agents for failure, neglect, or refusal to comply with the laws relating to animals.

Respectfully,
James O. Knowlton
Animal Control Officer - Vinalhaven

Vinalhaven School News

THIS WEEK at Vinalhaven School!

The school staff is attending one of three meetings this week to go over specific details for our latest Return-to-School plan. With feedback from teachers, for example, we are able to make sure the plans accommodate safety guidelines, provide opportunities for outdoor instruction and mask breaks, and offer options for a variety of learning situations.

Just a reminder:

1. All schools in the state of Maine will have at least 3 plans. At Vinalhaven School, Plan A = all students are at school in the building. Plan B = "Hybrid", meaning some students are in the building, and other students are learning "remote". Plan C = all students are remote (not in the building). We will be prepared with all plans required by the state. And, with each plan, our goal is to make school engaging, relevant, and fun.
2. Vinalhaven has significant advantages because we have smaller class sizes, lots of outdoor space, and a large building with great ventilation. Plus, teachers who are willing to put all of these plans together during the summer!
3. When we complete our planning, we'll get that info out to the community. It will be on our website, on our facebook page, shared through community links, and we'll produce a video where we can "walk" through the school to show everyone how it will work.
4. We will have repeated "zoom" sessions where we'll explain the plans, and then invite everyone in the community to ask questions.
5. Even though we will share with you each plan, we will not know which plan the state will recommend for September 8 when school starts. No matter what, we will consistently communicate updates with the Vinalhaven community

ICMS Hires Full-Time Provider

For Immediate Release:

For more information please call: Dinah B. Moyer, Executive Director, 207-863-4109

August 5, 2020

Vinalhaven, ME Islands Community Medical Services (ICMS) is very pleased to announce that Dr. Kimberly Saunders will be joining our organization in October 2020 as Medical Director working with our leadership team. Dr. Saunders, a board-certified family medicine physician, is currently practicing in Anchorage, AK with the Indian Health Service, which serves a patient population similar to that of a Community Health Center. While she, her husband and their two young children have thoroughly enjoyed the experience in Alaska, they are ready to return to the northeast, where they will be closer to family. In past years, they have enjoyed vacation time on Vinalhaven, and they are excited to be returning to this community, in order to make it their new home.

Dr. Saunders, who was born in Washington, DC, attended Clemson University where she earned her Bachelor of Arts Degree in Language and International Trade. She then attended medical school at Virginia College of Osteopathic Medicine where she earned her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine in 2010. Between college and medical school, Saunders was a Peace Corps Volunteer in West Africa where she assisted in a health clinic and helped with education programs to improve the health of the communities she served. Following medical school, she did her residency in Family Medicine at Eastern Maine Medical Center in Bangor. Most recently, her work in Alaska has been to manage outpatient services for about 1,000 Native Alaskan and American Indian patients, and to consult for two Aleutian Island Villages providing services to over 700 patients. This experience has allowed her to manage patients, living on remote islands, and when necessary, transferring patients to the mainland for more acute care. Dr. Saunders enjoys outpatient-based medicine where she sees up to 16 patients per day. She says this allows her to develop close relationships with her patients and understand their needs and provide the best of care.

Through ICMS's process to locate a new provider for the medical center, the Search Committee was impressed with Dr. Saunders' character. She has been recommended as a highly respected and conscientious physician who is a strong patient advocate. The Committee, comprised of Emily Lane, Chair; Dick Young; Diane Cochran; Dinah Moyer; Jen Desmond; and Jim Hogan, has been thoroughly impressed with her openness and candor, as well as her professional experience which has many similarities to providing community health care to island residents here in Maine.

THE OBSERVER
The other day an island woman was bringing her daughter home from the hospital. She had a couple other kids in tow as well. She put her truck in line & stepped out for a smoke. The line lady came walking up the line, as usual, to check tickets and see that everything was as it should be. Of course, one of those is that a vehicle in line must be, in fact, ‘completely within’ the lines. She ruled that one of the wheels was not entirely within the yellow lines. Here were the line lady’s options: She could have ignored it, asked the driver to wiggle the vehicle around a bit until its offending tire was with-in the lines, or she could command the driver to move to the end of the line as punishment for having violated the rules and for having been outside the vehicle instead of at the wheel. Her recent ‘customer service training’ must have compelled her to do whatever it takes to increase the level of stress & anger during these already trying times. She sent her to the end of the line. pc

Vinalhaven Cleaning Services is open for business!

We have all of our own cleaning supplies and equipment, facial coverings, gloves, foot coverings, ozone generators (more info on those as requested), etc and look forward to talking to each of you on your personal needs & requirements for your home or business!

Please be patient with us as we work out the kinks with our new venture in this new world we are navigating thru! We hope to be able to provide a wonderful service to everyone & to the community.

Reading Online Wind on a Kindle

Norbert Leser shared his steps for converting the online Wind into a more easily readable version on a Kindle.

1. Download the wind to your computer/device
2. Create an email message addressed to your Kindle account
3. Subject of the email is the word "Convert"
4. Attach the wind PDF to the email body (no other text)
5. Send email
6. After a short while open your Kindle app and synchronize - the Wind should appear in your library!

To find the Kindle email account mentioned above, you need to open the Kindle app and go to 'App Settings' in your menu at Kindle's home page. It lists 'Send to Kindle Email Address' - copy/paste that address and you're all set.

Veggie Corner: Sformato di Zucchine

In Italian it means “formless zucchini thing.” Part of this recipe was included in the 7/23 Wind.

- ✓ Zucchini
- ✓ Olive oil
- ✓ Béchamel sauce (see classic béchamel sauce recipe)
- ✓ Eggs
- ✓ Grated parmesan cheese
- ✓ Salt and pepper
- ✓ Whole nutmeg, grated
- ✓ Butter
- ✓ Breadcrumbs

1.) Grate zucchini. Sauté grated zucchini in olive oil in a large pot until tender and most of the liquid has evaporated. Put a dishcloth in a colander and let the zucchini drain more, then gather up the dishtowel and squeeze the zucchini until they are very dry.

2.) Pre-heat the oven to 375 degrees. Butter an ovenproof dish and dust with bread crumbs.

3.) Weigh cooked, dried zucchini and put zucchini in a large bowl. Add béchamel sauce (figure 3 cups per 1 lb. of cooked, dried zucchini), eggs (4 per 1 lb. of zucchini), grated parmesan cheese (1/2 cup or more per 1 lb. of zucchini), salt and pepper and several gratings of nutmeg. Pour into the prepared ovenproof dish and sprinkle top with more breadcrumbs and grated parmesan.

4.) Bake for an hour or more, until a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean. Serve warm or at room temperature, with parmesan on the side.

Note: chopped fresh mint can be substituted for nutmeg

In Tune

This gift of life, of breath
is not all there is to it for when I am in soft tune with living, still as a mantis
on the leaf, quiet as a wave at the lowest point of tide
then I am ready to receive and all of this, the whole shebang, delivers whatever
I need and the best of that falls my way so easily so gently, so constant and consistently because when I am my best self then I am the best thing ever created in all the worlds midst all the stars made just to feel this abundance of love
and yet, too, only dust.

Unconditional love really exists in each of us.
It is part of our deep inner being. It is not so much an active emotion as a state of being. It's not 'I love you' for this or that reason, not 'I love
you if you love me.'
It's love for no reason, love
without an object.
