Owen Richard Adair, Obituary

It is with deep sorrow and much love that we announce and mourn the passing of Owen Richard Adair, 31, of Vinalhaven, Maine. Owen's body was found October 18, 2022, on Vinalhaven.

Born on Vinalhaven in 1991, he was a beloved son, brother, uncle and friend.

Owen will be lovingly remembered by his parents, Robin and Cheryl Adair of Vinalhaven; sister Tiffanie Conchola and husband Roman of Houston, Texas, Autumn Adair-Hwang and husband Chris of Grafton, Massachusetts; brothers Hiram Adair, Ian Adair, and wife Julia, all of Vinalhaven, Maine; nieces and nephews, Logan, Kenzie, Ian, Maisie, Charles, Finley and Emery.

Owen is predeceased by a brother, Ethan William; both maternal and paternal grandparents; three aunts, Diane Ames, Lorraine Pierce, and Patricia Nick; and two cousins.

Owen grew up on the island of Vinalhaven and graduated from Vinalhaven High School. Owen loved to be outside, on the water and in the woods. He worked primarily as a lobsterman and recently worked in the woods, cutting trees and firewood. Owen was a grease monkey who enjoyed repairing, painting and fabricating trucks and cars, the louder the better. He loved four-wheeling, dirt bikes, burnouts, music, and spending time with his many friends.

Owen had a million-dollar smile that melted your heart and lit up a room. Owen's star burned bright and fast, and he will be forever missed by all who loved him.

A memorial service will be held at Brown's Head Cemetery, 43 Browns Head Light Road, Vinalhaven, Maine on Saturday, October 29, 2022, at 11 o'clock in the morning.

Memorial donations may be made in Owen Adair's name to Vinalhaven Community Outreach, VCO, PO Box 15, Vinalhaven, Maine 04863.

Arrangements are in the care of Burpee, Carpenter & Hutchins Funeral Home, 110 Limerock Street, Rockland.

To share a memory or condolence with the Adair family, please visit their Book of Memories at:

Tidbits from the Vinalhaven Historical Society

Mr. & Mrs. Fritz Skoog were hosts to a group of relatives and friends Wednesday evening in honor of their daughter Doris. Mrs. Chilles received many cards and gifts and the evening was spent watching TV, the men especially enjoying the 10 p.m. fight. A lunch of sandwiches, birthday cake and coffee were served. Those present were: Mr. & Mrs. Harold Chilles, Mrs. Linnie Smith, Mrs. Louise Chilles, Lawrence Orcutt, Phyllis Whittington, Linda Whittington and Mr. & Mrs. David Duncan, Jr. Oct. 27, 1957

Miss Lorraine May MacDonald, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Herbert MacDonald, was married Oct 20 to Harold Alley, Jr., son of Harold Alley, Sr., and the late Gladys Raymond Alley. The ceremony took place at the home of Rev. Wendell Knox. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Cynthia Tupper as maid of honor and Alton Oakes, Jr., as best man. The bride wore a coral rose wool suit and the maid of honor wore a dusty blue wool dress. Following the wedding, luncheon was served at their home. The wedding cake of 3 tiers, made by the bride's mother was beautifully decorated and topped by a miniature bride & groom. The newlyweds began housekeeping at once. Oct. 28, 1947

Michael Bunker, son of Sgt. & Mrs. Woodrow Bunker celebrated his 6th birthday Saturday at his home by entertaining these friends: Stephen York, Kenneth Conway, Walter White, Harry Conway, Ralph Smith, Clifford Quinn, James Calderwood, Lauretta Shields, Susan Webster and Jacquelyn Ames. Lunch included a large birthday cake and also a Jack-o-Lantern cake, ice cream and cookies. Decorations were in keeping with Halloween. Oct. 30, 1945

The Happy Sailors Sky Lark Band held a mother daughter banquet. Some 37 were present to enjoy the turkey pie supper. Table decorations were in Sky Lark blue, white and yellow. Place cards were made in the replica of the Sky Lark insignia. Following the supper an impromptu program of song and speech making was enjoyed by all. The Sky Lark leader is Mrs. Sadie Dyer, who is assisted by Mrs. Doris Candage and Mrs. Minnie Gustavson. Oct. 29, 1959

A group of young people enjoyed a Halloween party Thursday night in one of the buildings of the Robertson estate. Those present were: Helen Asiala, Carolyn Alley, Ada Bray, Audrey Coombs, Betty Dyer, Helen Dyer, Marguerite and Marjorie MacDonald, Geraldine Robertson, Astrid Rosen, Mary Warren, Joseph Dyer, Stephen Hamilton, Kenneth Hildings, Floyd Robertson, Fred Snowman, Everett Tolman, Richard Williams, Wyvern Winslow. Lanterns dimly lighted the room which was attractively adorned with orange and black decorations. The evening was spent playing games, dancing and having a scavenger hunt. Music was by Dick Williams, guitar; Joe Dyer and Kenneth Hildings, Harmonica. Winners of the scavenger hunt were Helen Dyer and Everett Tolman. Oct. 31, 1939

Excerpt from an article in a Vinalhaven Neighbor...To us the house is ever a reminder of a famous game of cards played many years ago which resulted in grandfather's abhorrence of playing cards. It seems that he and a number of friends, among whom was Capt. Bill Lane, were engaged in a friendly game of cards when some sort of disagreement arose and loud words were spoken. While the discussion was at its height the house was suddenly shaken as if with a giant hand and the doors and windows rattled loud enough to drown the angry words. Extremely superstitious, all were silenced by, what seemed to them, occult reproof of their actions. At any rate grandfather was so impressed by the demonstration that he never played a game of cards thereafter... unknown date

The Social Committee with Doris Arey, chairman, assisted by Cora Peterson and Gladys Coombs held a most successful Halloween party Wednesday evening. The vestry showed the Halloween season with decorations of orange and black streamers, witches and black cats and wise old owls. The darkened entrance was well guarded by ghosts and goblins, shaking a friendly by gruesome hand. Various games and contests were played. Refreshments of doughnuts, cider and candies were served, after which the ghosts and witches retired for another year. Oct. 31, 1953

With building costs soaring, it's time to review your home insurance.

Houses come in many shapes and sizes—and so does homeowners insurance. With homebuilding costs on the rise, it is vital for you to make sure that your house has replacement cost coverage so that you can rebuild as it was before it was destroyed or purchase brand new items if your old ones are damaged or stolen.

OCT. 25TH-31ST IS MAGIC WEEK
Celebrating the craft of magicians and illusionists everywhere

Home Alone, not with these boys!

Part of my responsibilities as an officer in the fire department back in Massachusetts was teaching.

I was contacted by the middle school nurse who asked me to put together a curriculum for teaching children with their parents the appropriateness of being "home alone."

The class was very successful and appropriate until the very end when I asked if there were any questions. Boys would raise their hands and ask things like "what if a murderer came into the house and I was eating pizza?" ... "What if there was an earthquake, what if my parents decided not to come home, what if a monster came out of the television and started to attack me?" Every class after this, there was no questions to be answered at the end of the session. cc

P.S. Of course these questions were only asked by boys.

Getting A Head

Silhouette, head in hand, a profile, pure fright...
Did dance in the lightening of this holy night.
The blood told the story when lit by the sky,
As It flashes and crashes and opens an eye, But scariest of all was the look on its face,
As it seemed not alive or right for this place...
The grin did me in, so perfect ... sincere, While its eyes followed mine, they taught me real fear.

Grief Tide Rising

There's a whole lot of pain on the island right now and the tide still falls and rises

When I've lost someone and my heart is broken and my eyes are leaking rain it is hard to see a way clear hard to feel anything is important anymore but in my age, I know: this time that we are given here is not wasted or forgotten, it lives on in the memory-bank of loved ones

When the sunlight hits my face I feel hope, I can feel a lift of spirit however fleeting it may be and happier times find nesting places in the softened corners tucked away for leaner days

When the sky opens and it pours down wet and wild as if to compete with me right now then it feels like I am torn apart from the inside out and will never pick up again but I do, with help and care I do I guess it's in our nature to survive to carry on even if it's all pretend even if the simplest task looks meaningless or I want to scream "Don't you know what's happened" at people who dare to smile at me

We need to go gently with each other in our grief, our sorrowing the hurt has already been done it is not new to some of us but trying on the young I must treat myself and everyone with kindness, now that I do not have you here to smile at me now that I can no longer show you how much you mean and, like the tide, I'll go high I'll go low, that's just how it is until my time here is finished

I saw children playing on the Legion lawn today with plastic pumpkins, not a care in the world and I knew that there will always be children and that Halloween will be raucous again, this year, filled with squeals of laughter and bright eyes flashing behind masks of horror and beauty, I will wear a mask, I will pass out sweets and I will definitely smile remembering all that's come before this pain of leave taking So, Happy Hallows' Eve and All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day and may it also be a time when all of us here remember all of you there with love and vice versa.

Paddy Noble

The Observer
On Halloween Night about 40 years ago, 3 adults— 3 from whom we might, & still might, expect this sort of thing—put in an appearance among the many legitimate trick or treaters on our street. As Elaine & I sat waiting for the next courageous youngster to climb the steps & navigate the moderately frightening obstacle course between the door & treats, a pickup pulled in across the street. Someone exited the passenger side but in the dark shade of our neighbor's maples, we couldn't make out who it was. In a moment it emerged from the shadows. Well over 7 feet tall, it was an enormous & maniacally carved pumpkin atop a gangly man's shoulders where one might otherwise expect to find a real head. This must have been its maiden voyage because it was clear he hadn't tried being upright with his head embedded in a 60 lb pumpkin before. The effort required to remain vertical & stable with that much weight aloft, as he staggered precariously & hilariously across the street toward our door was nearly more than he could manage. Today, well over 80, he's likely to engage in a repeat performance at any moment. Later the same night, an apparition climbed the steps on all fours, a suspicious creature, snarling & straining at its chain to get at me. Its master gleefully played out enough lead for the thing to bound through the door & bite me on the ankle & then they both flew back across the dark street, each laughing hysterically. These 2 also, are likely to pop up again without warning. I hope such real mischief remains alive & well in this town. pc

Our Ham Dinner is done and we were so happy to have helped the Vinalhaven Fuel Fund. Now, we will begin preparation for the Thanksgiving Dinner. On Thanksgiving Day, Pleasant River Chapel will be sending out free Thanksgiving dinners between 11:30 AM -12:30 PM to anyone in our community as our holiday gift.

Our menu will be turkey, stuffing, gravy, mashed potatoes, squash, cranberry jell, a dinner roll, and a piece of either apple or pumpkin pie.

On November 9th, Pete Pedersen will start to take orders but not until then. Remember that this meal could be for you or an island neighbor.

We could use 5 pounds of butter, two gallons of milk and apple or pumpkin pies. On Thanksgiving Day, we will need a few more drivers as well.

There will be more in next week's Wind.
