Thank You

Pleasant River Chapel wishes to thank the Vinalhaven Community for their incredible support in our baked bean, spaghetti, lobster stew, haddock chowder, and turkey dinners. Many thanks to our bakers, our drivers, contributors, and kitchen crew. A very special thank you to the Vinalhaven Managers at the lobster buying stations, the dock crews, and the amazing lobstermen. We will have a short winter's break and resume the baked bean dinners in March or April, depending on the weather. We could not have done it without your incredible support. Thank you again, Ethel Jones, Kathy Morton, and Pete Pedersen

Thank you to all who sent cards or called to wish me a Happy 90th Birthday.

Although I haven't seen most of you for a long time, your cards and little messages brought back fond memories of times past when you touched my life in so many special ways. God Bless.

Love to all, Sadie Dyer

THANK YOU SO MUCH! The roller coaster ride of my life started in June and hopefully will end Dec. 15, 2021. Of course. Only the good Lord knows the answer to that. My family and I want to thank each and everyone that has reached out in anyway. From words prayers, encouragement, donating to the several benefits, cards, anything, and everything! Right now, it seems that the whole family is on the mend and doing better. I wish I could name each one of you individually, but don't want to leave anyone out. However, we do want to give a special thanks to everyone at Island Closet, Fisherman's Friend including Sadie, Pleasant River Chapel, American Legion and Vinalhaven Outreach. Once again thanks everyone,

Ince again thanks everyone, Bill, Julie, BJ, and Catherine

December 7th – National Pearl Harbor Day of Remembrance

A day of infamy, the day Japan attacked the US at Pearl Harbor. On that day in 1941, more than 2,400 people died in the attack on the Hawaiian base of America's Pacific Fleet. Hundreds of service men and women were killed or injured. It was an unprecedented surprise and precipitated the US entry into WWII.

Job Opportunities

Ambulance Director (FT)

The Town of Vinalhaven EMS squad is a Basic Service, licensed to the paramedic level. Currently, there are three advanced EMTs on the squad. Our service averages approximately 200 calls per year, with 65% transported to the mainland. We pride ourselves on offering the same quality of care that one would expect on the mainland, despite our remoteness. We are looking for a director who can support our good work and improve on it while balancing the administrative responsibilities and emergency calls.

Our community is seeking someone that is committed to serving others, willing to embrace challenges, and able to enhance our service. This is a full-time position that offers paid vacation and sick time, health, dental and retirement contributions, and a salary range of $44,720 to $50,960, commensurate with experience.

Deputy Clerk (FT or PT)

This position involves significant public contact and working with town staff and volunteers. The Town Office is often the first phone call made to figure out what resources or agencies can assist with the public's questions/concerns. This position can be a F/T or P/T position, depending on the candidate's qualifications and desired workload. Work includes assisting committees to maintain public records and assisting with the town's communications. Work is performed under the supervision of the Town Manager subject to applicable State laws and regulation and annual financial audits.

Harbor Master Notice

Previously I posted a Notice that said trailers, boats, and equipment must be removed from the Parking Lot at the Harbor Wharf or they will be removed by the Town and taken to the Transfer Station.

Instead of removing the trailers & boats the opposite has happened, more trailers and boats have been abandoned at the Wharf/Parking Lot. This leaves me no choice but to have them removed by the Public Works Department and the cost of the removal will be charged to the owner.

If you know who owns this equipment that has not been licensed and has no id. Please say something to the owners.

This notice does not apply to those people that have communicated to me, that they are in the process of removal but have requested more time, which is the thing to do.

Please help me, help you!

For the people that have continually left their trash, old traps, and junk at the Town Wharf, I am asking you to please pick up after yourself. Help make the wharf a place where we all can have a great place to do our business.

Winter is coming, I need the wharf to be ready for snow removal, etc. After November 15th, which is enough time to comply, I will take necessary action to ensure the wharf is within the Harbor Ordinance.

Again, please pick up your trash and work with me for the good of all of us.

–Harbor Master

The Deli Diaries

For years I took care of the bottle collection and distribution center next to the Tidewater. Every day I would spend whatever time was necessary sorting, bagging, boxing and then delivering to the Ivan Calderwood Homestead for Eldercare. One day, during a particularly demanding hour or so, Deli pulled up to the exit in his truck. He rolled down his window and called my name. Having attention, reminded me, remember you as a kid. I'm telling you right now, if this is your idea of Community Service, you ain't no wheres near done." pc

Tidbits from the Vinalhaven Historical Society

That Thanksgiving and December holidays are bearing down upon us is manifested in one respect at least by confectioner's windows decked with a fresh supply of ribbon candy. Christmas would seem strange indeed without ribbon candy. Nov. 21, 1922

It was 93 years ago this year that a baby was born on Saddleback to Mr. and Mrs. Watson Hopkins. There was no house on the rock then, just the tower, and Mr. Hopkins was keeper. A week or so after the child's birth a boat arrived to take her to Vinalhaven. While attempting to pass the baby from the rock to the people in the boat, she was accidentally dropped into the sea but was quickly rescued. The child, in later years came to be one of our town's best known and beloved citizens, Mrs. Margaret Kittredge. Keeper Hopkins was the father of five other children, but Mrs. Kittredge, now deceased, had the distinction of being the only person born on Saddleback Ledge.

Vinalhaven Neighbor Nov. 24, 1927

During the severe storm of last week, considerable damage was done along the waterfront. J.O. Brown & Son's wharf was completely destroyed, F.L. Brown's fish market washed into the dock, J.P. Reynolds' wharf was badly damaged, the building and woodwork of the coal wharf was floated and landed on the Cross Islands, besides much other damage all along the Thoroughfare. Courier-Gazette Dec. 8, 1944

Under the auspices of Woodcock-Cassie-Coombs Post No.18, at noon, Armistice Day, the squares to be named for our honored dead will be dedicated. The parade will start in front of the Memorial Hall and proceed to Cassie Square, thence to Magnuson Square, to Coombs Square, to Creed Square to Polk Square ending at Woodcock Square, where the dedication exercises will be completed. Following the exercises, the American Legion will hold a fair in the Memorial Hall. The big event is the Baby Show. Each baby will receive a free favor. At 7 o'clock the stupendous film production "Lafayette, We Come," will be shown, followed by the "ball of the season." Hats will be given away to the ladies. Music furnished in the afternoon by the Ladies Orchestra, for the picture, by the knickerbocker Five and for the dance by the Arion Orchestra. Courier Gazette Nov. 9, 1922 love of her life, John Brock, while they both were teaching at Chestnut Hill Academy. They made their home in Philadelphia, PA, Lakeville, CT, and finally in Sandisfield, MA where they enjoyed their sheep farm. They particularly enjoyed summers spent in Vinalhaven, Maine.

They were parents of Susan B. Saltonstall (Endicott) of Plymouth, Massachusetts; Jennifer Brock of Marysville, Pennsylvania; John M. Brock (Sheila Dugan) of Missoula, Montana; Peter Brock (Janet) of Barrington, Rhode Island; and Stephen C. Brock (fiancé Sheri Romer) of Vinalhaven, Maine. Mary was predeceased by her husband and their daughter, Jane B. Scott, of South Dartmouth, Massachusetts. Following the death of her husband, Mary lived briefly in Monterey, MA before moving to Maine and settling in Cape Elizabeth. Mary loved children, especially young ones, and she leaves 14 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Mary's family is grateful for the wonderful care she received at Laurelwood at The Pinehills, Plymouth, Massachusetts in her final years and Beacon Hospice in her final months.

Mary's interests, volunteer work, and donations all centered around her love of Vinalhaven, Maine; animals, especially birds and dogs; conservation, with a focus on land trusts; and equality and peace, particularly the American Friends Service Committee.

As of October 15, you can begin looking at plan options without actually creating an account, and the information won't be saved. On November 1, you will need to create an account and complete the application to have plan options appear.

Q: What if I do nothing?

A: You will automatically be enrolled in a plan that closest matches your current plan. If you are automatically enrolled, it DOES NOT guarantee that your current provider is covered. We strongly encourage all to go in and shop for plans that cover your provider as well as prescriptions.

Q: Do I need to make an account, even if I have one through healthcare.gov?

A: Yes, you do. This is a new system that will need you to create a new account with your current information.

Q: What if my application results say I qualify for MaineCare?

A: You should fill it out and it will automatically be sent to DHHS for review. If they deny MaineCare coverage you can go back to CoverME.gov and complete your application.

Q: What if I have questions about CoverME.gov?

A: You can call Leslie Dyer at ICMS for help enrolling in CoverME.gov at 863-4341 ext. 1114 or 466-5089.

ICMS COVID-19 UPDATE

COVID-19 Booster Shot FAQs

Q: Who is eligible for a COVID-19 booster shot?

A: The COVID-19 vaccine continues to be the most effective tool to reduce the risk of severe disease, hospitalization, and death. The CDC has updated its guidance on the recommendation for booster doses in some groups of people.

- If you received Pfizer-BioNTech or Moderna you are eligible for a booster at least 6 months after your second shot and meet the following criteria:
  - o 65 years or older
  - Age 18+ and live in a long-term care setting
  - Age 18+ and have an underlying medical condition
  - Age 18+ and work or live in a high-risk setting
- If you have received Johnson & Johnson/Janssen vaccine, you are eligible 2 months after your initial shot and meet the following criteria
  - o Age 18+

Q: Can I mix-and-match booster shots?

A: The current scientific evidence suggests it's safe to mix-and-match a booster dose with a vaccine if you prefer a different vaccine type from the one you initially received. ICMS only carries Moderna, if you prefer a different type of COVID-19 booster or initial COVID-19 vaccine please make an appointment on the mainland.

Q: Are the booster shots made with the same formula as the initial dose?

A: Yes, for the Pfizer and J&J vaccines. However, the Moderna booster dose is a half-dose of the initial vaccine.

Q: Do I need to bring my vaccination card for a booster shot?

A: Yes, if you did not receive one or have misplaced it, please contact ICMS.

Q: I'm Immunocompromised. What is the difference between a booster shot and a third dose?

A: Individuals with a moderate-to-severely compromised immune system may not build up the same level of immunity with the initial vaccine series compared to non-immunocompromised people. Therefore, the CDC recommends these individuals receive an additional dose of an mRNA vaccine at least 28 days after a second dose to improve their immune response. If you fall into this category, please contact ICMS.

ICMS recommends getting your booster on the mainland as supplies are currently limited.

Holiday Season Memories Center on Family, Community

"Being with your family – getting together," is the most important thing to keep in mind as we head into the holidays says Madeline Smith. Asked what it is that she most remembers about holiday seasons during her 91 years of life, she doesn't speak of gifts or decorations, or parties. I'm so happy when we're all together," she says.

Thanksgiving kicks off several weeks of activity as many people prepare for holidays. Finding time to enjoy the season isn't easy, given the details of everyday life and the extra demands of special activities. As the period begins, Smith was willing to share some of her thoughts about what remains important, over the years, about the season.

At Thanksgiving, she says, we ought to "give thanks – that's what it's for!" What can families do to regain some of the magic of the season that may have been lost in the bustle of modern life? What should they choose to do and not do, in the time available?

Speaking of celebrating--the time with children, she suggests that we "let them help a little and see what it's all about."

Of the Christmas holiday, she feels that too often children think of it as "gifts, gifts, gifts...all just Santa Claus is coming." They, "should be told what it means, more than just presents," she suggests.

The holiday is made up of little things, and she mentions one of the small things she remembers which is still part of the holiday on the island. A creche is set up annually, a "community project," she says. She recently read in an island publication that one year a little girl looked at the infant Jesus and worried that he was cold. She then covered him with her scarf. Those who store the creche from year to year have kept the covering in good condition and it continues to be part of the display.

Many of her other memories are of the same nature – little things which have to do with family, neighbors, friends.

Although born on the mainland, at Machias, Madeline Smith has lived on Vlnalhaven since 1914. At that time her father who was a paving cutter, moved to the island. He worked, she remembers, in what was know as the Boston Quarry, because the paving was being cut for that city.

About to enter her senior year in high school, she was upset about the prospect of starting that year with people she didn't know. Her father said she must "go to school or go to work," she remembers, and she decided to go to work. That ended up being in the fish cutting factory then operating on the island. The factory, she says, processed salted blocks of fish as well as shredded fish which was canned. (She compares the latter to tuna fish.)

The factory is where she met her future husband. Reflecting the attitudes of the day, she says that her father, on learning that she wanted to go on a date with him, said, "You don't know anything about him," and that Langtry's mother said, "You don't know anything about her." Nevertheless, they ended up at a dance together. That took a bit of doing since he was in an orchestra and was supposed to play that night. By the way of an excuse, he bandaged his finger to look as if it was injured.

One thing led to another, they eventually married and had 54 years together before his death.

On family life in general, she thinks that children watch "too much TV" and that there is too much crime to watch.

"Spend time together, however you can," she advises parents. Whatever else a child may be doing, she thinks, there "aren't too many fathers who go out and play ball with their sons," and like activities.

Family ties are still strong in the Smith family. Her son and daughter-in-law, who stayed with her on the island all summer following an illness, have now returned to their home in Florida. The telephone, though, lets her keep in touch with them, at the rate of two calls a week. Two sisters, Polly, and Eleanor, still live in Vlnalhaven and she talks to them daily.

Although her holidays will be different this year, she is now staying at a convalescent home and meeting new friends and speaks of the time with happy memories and hopes that people will take the time to celebrate their holidays with their families.

Fox Islands Electric Cooperative Retires and Returns $48,600 in Capital Credits to Members

FIEC seeks former members owed refunds.

In 2020 and 2021, FIEC retired and returned $48,600 in capital credits to its current and former members. Unlike for-profit utilities whose excess revenue goes to shareholders, cooperatives reinvest the revenue in the electric system and return it to its members when the equity is retired.

The Board approved the retirement of equity from the years 1977, 1978, and 1981. For individuals who had electric service during any of those years, FIEC credited current members on their July electric bill and mailed a check to former members. The checks mailed to the former members listed below were returned as undeliverable.

If you know any person on this list or their rightful heir(s), please have them contact Fox Islands Electric Cooperative at (207) 863-4636 or by email at Office@FoxIslands.net.

If the refunds remain unclaimed, the money will escheat to the State of Maine.

Did you know...during WWII, The US Playing Card Co. joined forces with American & British intelligence agencies to create a very special deck of cards. They distributed them as Christmas gifts, but they also helped allied prisoners of war escape from German POW camps. When wet, individual cards peeled apart to reveal maps of escape routes.

As they prepared to unload, Hibert Smith came along, bought the building, and had them place it on the shore of Sands Cove.

He loved Santa so much, that in 1835, he helped launch the St. Nicholas Society of the city of NY. serving as its secretary until 1841.

NOTICE OF PASSING

Frederick MacLeod Strawson (93) passed away on November 21st, 2021, in Burlington NC. Fred had a deep love for the island and the people he had befriended over the years. His parents (Mary and Stanton Strawson) purchased property on the island in 1935, and ever since age 7, Fred relished his time on Vinalhaven. He had a deep desire to protect the island's natural resources and worked with the Vinalhaven Land Trust to prevent development around the seal basin, Fred was full of adventure and swam through the basin rapids at age 80, something that gave him much pride and his family a fright. He made his last trip to Vinalhaven in 2020, driving his 1996 pick-up from North Carolina, and enjoyed every minute of his two weeks on the island. We are thankful for the community of Vinalhaven and the joy this island has provided our father and the entire Strawson family. Please visit www.wrenn-yeatts.com, for the full obituary.

Advent on the Ocean

The sun had dropped over the bay to the west, and I was walking along the ocean where the waves wash up on the rocks. The sky was a dark, deep blue with a faint pinkish glow from the where the sun still glowed on the atmosphere. It was the end of day on one of the shortest days of the year, and in the purple-blue darkness of the sky, the first stars began to emerge.

In the Christian calendar, the season of Advent marks the new year, and the color of the season is purple. You can see this in the purple candles of the Advent wreath, and in the evening sky. There is a paradox in darkness that Advent reminds with its color. The deep blues and violets are literally at the edge of the visible spectrum for human sight. These colors and the darkness near them remind us that what we normally see is not all that is. What we often pay attention to is not necessarily what ultimately is real or matters most. It is in darkness that we begin to see the stars that have been there all along.

It is both funny and sad to me how the commercial world of "Christmas" - with all its bright lights and reminders that shopping season is urgently upon us - completely misses the dark, quiet reminders of Advent. No television commercials blare out, "Happy Advent!" As the days get shorter and the "holiday season" gets more frenetic with the pressure to buy more stuff for the people we love, I find that quiet walks by the ocean become more important. It is there where I can cherish the purple darkness that invites to the edge of things, in a way that stretches my capacity to see and hear what I often overlook or ignore. It's a good place to pray and be still with God.

The Gospel stories of Advent call us listen, and consider, and see what we otherwise may not notice. In this holy season, we are reminded of the voices of prophets, and angels. The prophets called out to their people to see the truth that the world was ignoring, and even to repent of the ways of living that were not ultimately the ways of life. The prophets of old were not much liked in their own times. They were seen as too much on the edge of things. But the light of their witness in the darkness of their own times was revealed in the course of history to be true.

In this season of holy darkness, let us pause for a moment to consider the truth that can be revealed at the edge of things. Let us consider the lights we don't usually see (or want to see). Let us hearken to voices crying the wilderness that we don't hear (or want to hear). Just for a moment, let us try this.

The holy stories that stretch our imaginations and hearts are worthy of pausing in humble reverence before. In them, prophets cry in the wilderness for a society that seems to be crumbling around itself. In them, a young woman is visited by an angel, is told that she is pregnant with a special child – and not by her husband. She holds this message in her young heart, not knowing what it all means. And this is how the Holy One of God will come into the world, such a surprising and uncertain way to enter this world!

Sometimes I wonder how many times I have just stood still and listened to these stories, letting their details wash over me like these waves on the rocks. But as these little waves come in tonight at the edge of the land and the edge of the ocean, I wonder if the waves of this story are calling us to go someplace new in our lives that we can't yet see. It's kind of exciting and it's kind of scary. And it's not lost on me right now that the daylight has made me blind to the stars that only darkness can reveal. In some ways, it makes no sense. But at the same time, there it is, obviously true.

It is after darkness after all that the stars are revealed. It gets darker and darker and darker, and then comes the dawn. It is after the loneliest silence that the angels' voices can be heard. And when we can be still enough hear the angels, we can understand the truth in their message: "Alleluia. Do not be afraid. You are not alone."

Advent blessings to you, wherever you are.

The Observer

JFK-John Fitzgerald Kennedy was the first catholic elected President. Earlier, his Profiles in Courage won him a Pulitzer Prize for Literature. After taking office he managed increasing tensions with the Soviet Union, stumbled through the Bay of Pigs Invasion, guided us successfully through the Cuban Missile Crisis, established a hot line between DC and Moscow, introduced the first Civil Right Act, oversaw establishment of the Peace Corps, declared we would put a man on the moon, increased forces in Vietnam and was assassinated while I watched from boot camp, never having had a chance to tweet. Vice President Lyndon Johnson took office after JFK was killed. He shepherded through and strengthened the Civil Rights legislation JFK had initiated, introduced The Great Society which enhanced various public services, and lifted thousands out of poverty. He expanded our involvement in Vietnam and was dissuaded by widespread disapproval of that expansion from seeking renomination in 1968. Neither did he get a chance to tweet. Richard Nixon became president in 1969. He engineered the conclusion of the Vietnam war, improved relations with the Soviets and with China, led during the first moon landing, established the EPA and then became the first president to resign from office. He did not tweet his resignation.
