TRAFFIC PARKING ALERT AT THE THOROUGHFARE
(Water Taxi Dock and Boat Launch Area)

There will be a high volume of large tractor trailer traffic coming and going at the boat launch area/Fox Island Thoroughfare on Mon., Tues., & Wed., week of May 9, 10, and 11. The boat launch area needs to be clear for The Island Transporter to unload large trucks and these trucks will need a good bit of space to come and go around the curves in the parking area. Please spread the word for people parking there to leave the drive free, especially in those big curves. Many Thanks!

NOTIFICATION: April 28 Downtown Project Ledge Probe Work on Main Street

As part of the Downtown Project, contractor SW Cole will be on Main Street Thursday, April 28 (rain date Friday, April 29) to drill holes for ledge probing. The ledge probes will provide project engineers with information needed to complete final engineering designs for installation of the new water main, which will begin this September.

There will be minor disruptions to traffic on Main Street spanning High Street to Water Street so please plan accordingly. The drilling equipment is mounted to the rear of a standard size pick-up truck so there is no large equipment involved. As a result, there will not be any road closures or major disruptions to traffic or businesses.

The SW Cole driller will be arriving on the first boat and leaving on the last so work will be from approximately 8:30am to 3:30pm. They will be working with Vinalhaven Water District Superintendent Will Calkins. Please direct any questions or concerns to downtownproject@townofvinalhaven.org

THE OBSERVER

I'm preparing for another awkward summer, day after day of folks who are familiar but nothing more, hurrying up to greet me, to ask about Elaine, about my kids and grandkids, about me, about how we survived the winter and so forth. I remember when—well, actually I don't remember when but—I'm sure there was a time when I returned their greetings with equal enthusiasm and asked about them and their families, even recalled their names, and what they did for a living and the names of kids instead of painfully trying to hide the fact that I no longer remember remember them. It started with a brief session of chemo a few years ago but it's the result of aging too. Back then, when the deficiency became suddenly apparent, I wrote on a page in my pocket notebook, WHO'S THAT BEHIND ME? and when I saw enthusiastic summer folks approaching, I'd turn around and flash the note to whoever was behind me, hoping I knew who they were and hoping that they could tell me who the others were. It's gotten worse and I don't carry the notebook because I forget to. Last year someone approached and there was no one to ask, nothing to do except deal with it. She chatted away and finally I apologized and asked how we knew one another. Apparently, we were once engaged. pc

Tidbits from the Vinalhaven Historical Society

A Husband wanted. Mr. Editor: Knowing that you are interested in the welfare of all your subscribers, and that you can never turn away from poor, suffering mortals without giving them what there is in your power, I have thought that perhaps you would do me a favor. I saw in the WIND sometime since, a list of bachelors. Now I want a husband. Although I may not answer every requirement, I can come so near that there will be no trouble on that score, I think. And to give some idea of my good points, I will say I am 23 years old, medium size, with blue eyes and light brown hair; a well-rounded form, such as men admire, and keep house in a first class manner. I do not claim to be a belle, but flatter myself that I can appear well in society, so I see no good reason, if some young man will come to my aide, why we can't "fee the parson." Now, I am not so particular about the size of my suitor as I am the size of his purse, still I would not wish him to be rich—ten thousand, and about six hundred yearly. A man with an amiable temper and good moral character, who is willing to rock the baby half the time. If anyone thinks that such a description suits him and that he will fill the above description, I should be most happy to meet him the first Saturday evening in May at the skating rink. F.D.

Vinalhaven School News!

Students and staff are back from spring break and there's energy in the air! We are in the process of advertising, interviewing, and hiring new staff for next year. Students are moving into the busiest and most active time of year. In addition to academics, there will be field trips, baseball and softball games and many special events. Next week high school students will travel to the Botanical Gardens, and elementary students will explore poetry. Save-the-date on calendars for May 12, when Chris Herren, a former professional basketball player, will speak with students during the day and parents/community in the evening. May 19th will be a combination music concert and art event. Watch for more information as these special events arrive.

Middle School is looking for community service opportunities! We are hoping to do a morning of service on Friday, May 27th. If you have a project on-island that's appropriate for a group of about 8 middle schoolers for 2 hours or so, please contact Emily Cohn, Stormy Dyer, or Taylor Leach. We are looking for projects that will benefit the community and community organizations already doing great work! So helping with gardens in a public space - yes, helping with individual gardens, less so. We might not be able to get to all projects, but welcome your ideas!

Executive Director Position Opening Vinalhaven Land Trust

Vinalhaven Land Trust (VLT) is seeking a new Executive Director. This is currently a full-time position based at our Vinalhaven office. VLT is a well established, financially secure organization dedicated to protecting the nature and resources of the Vinalhaven Island community for future generations. VLT owns both conservation properties and protective easements across the Island and runs a variety of educational programs. We are excited to consider a wide range of leaders for this role, and seek someone who shares our commitment to Vinalhaven's people and environment, likes to get outdoors, and enjoys working with a team.

Sustainable Maine Fishing Foundation
Maine Lobstering Union-Local 207
For Lobstermen, By Lobstermen

The Maine Lobstering Industry is in a very precarious position these days. We are being inundated with regulation changes faster than we can keep up.

The Maine Lobstering Union recently created a non-profit organization, the Sustainable Maine Fishing Foundation, to fund the legal challenges that threaten our industry each day, helping us preserve our legacy fishery.

We are currently in three federal lawsuits regarding North Atlantic Right Whales, one as the lead plaintiff and two as interveners defending Maine's lobstermen. We are also deeply involved with moving Maine's renewable energy needs forward, responsibly.

Sustainable Maine FF is working to protect the Maine Fishermen, and the Gulf of Maine, the "Gold Standard" for the largest producer of sustainable lobster in the world. The lobstermen of Maine have an unmatched dedication to their industry. An industry in constant jeopardy as new regulations threaten their way of life, their livelihoods, their future. An industry rich in heritage that spans over hundreds of years, with a legacy that is passed on through generations.

We greatly appreciate the past, present, and future financial assistance our donors continue to provide. We exist solely on donations and fundraising. Please become a donor today! If you have specific funding guidelines we can work within those parameters. We are also open to fundraising suggestions!

May none of us ever know a time when Maine lobster is not on a menu.

Thank you for your kind attention to the above matter. Please contact us with any questions.

Respectfully,

Sustainable Maine Fishing Foundation

Our Island

Our Island. Our beautiful Island.
A green spot out here in the sea
Our people so different from others
As independent as people can be.

Some people have tried hard to change us
But they had to give up in despair
We are about as the Good LORD
has made us
And wish to remain as we are.

One little man tried to zone us
But we all set up such a cry
He said how you tame such wild people
They will stay wild till they die.

The people who come here each season
Learn to conform to our ways
They even get used to our language
By hearing it spoken each day.

Don't think we don't know we are different
Our speech crude and strange to the ear
Of people who come from the city
And hear cultured voices all year.

We never can change I assure you.
Don't expect any city airs here
We enjoy our simple existence
On our beautiful island so dear.

B is for our Bandstand – built and donated in 1985 by a local secret society called the W-14 Club, the bandstand stood on the eastern end of Main Street where the granite fountain currently stands. It was moved to its present site in 1911. Over the years, there have been a few renovations by concerned citizens and citizens groups, at this time it is currently being renovated in hopes it will be ready for the 2022 season. Many concerts have been performed here and this unique structure has been a place for islanders and tourists alike to sit and relax.

Colonial Days

From a children's book of etiquette in the late 1700's
"Never sit down at the table till asked, and after the blessing. Ask for nothing; tarry till it be offered thee. Speak not. Bite not they bread but break it. Take salt only with a clean knife. Dip not they meat in the same. Hold not thy knife upward but sloping and lay it down at right hand of a plate with blade on plate. Look not earnestly at any other that is eating. When moderately satisfied leave the table. Sing not, hum not, wiggle not. Spit nowhere in the room, but in the corner."

VH students at Maine Photography Show

By Joe Lazaro

The 17th annual Maine Photography Show is happening from April 9th to May 6th at Boothbay Regional Art Foundation. Three Vinalhaven School students have been accepted for the event.

Pictures from senior Myra Mills, junior Maddie Miller, and sixth-grader Helen Davis were accepted in the student category and will be on display at the gallery. The Maine Photography Show is a juried event open to people from all around the state. This year there were a total of 700 photos entered and only 120 were accepted.

Heather White, Vinalhaven School's art teacher, got the idea to apply from a summer community member. "A community member from the summer told me about it. For some kids it was an assignment, but then I put a request to anyone who was interested, and yeah, we even got a sixth-grader," said White.

Acceptance into the show is very competitive. "We never expect stuff like that, like I entered photos that didn't get in and that's fine. The fact that the students just putting work out is good for students, but getting accepted, that's just a cherry on top," said White.

Miller was also surprised by the fact that she got accepted. "I didn't expect my photo to get accepted, it was a complete shock," she said.

Miller decided to submit work to the photo show just for fun. "I wanted to apply just because it was something to do and work for," said Miller. The picture Miller submitted was not one she took specifically for the purpose, but a picture she took months ago. "I didn't plan it at all. I took one of the pictures I did in the summer and turned it in. It's one of my best sunset pictures in my opinion," said Miller.

Mills was the other high schooler who was accepted into the photo show. "I've always taken pictures, but this was my first-time taking pictures with a real camera," said Mills.

The reason she applied is that it was an assignment. "Ms. White made us apply in our photography class," said Mills.

This class has created a new hobby for Mills. "I'll definitely be doing more photography in the future," she said.

"Photography is in our lives in a way that it didn't used to be because of smartphones, so it's worth investing time. Why wouldn't you wanna get better at it?" said White.

Did you know...the difference between Earth Day and Arbor Day is that while Earth Day recognizes humankind's negligence regarding the environment and aims to take steps to correct the imbalance, Arbor Day, while similar in purpose is one day
dedicated to the planting of trees, which in turn helps lower the carbon footprint.

ABOUT CHRIS HERREN

Chris Herren, a basketball legend from Fall River, Massachusetts, was an All-American, broke scoring records and was recruited by the nation's top colleges. Herren realized his lifelong dream of playing in the NBA when he was drafted by the Denver Nuggets in 1999 and then traded to his hometown team, the Boston Celtics, before losing his career and almost his family to the disease of addiction.

A person in long term recovery, Chris inspires people to start the conversation on wellness and educate themselves on the disease of addiction. It is his hope that strength will be found in the struggle and communities will come TOGETHER to address the issue of substance use disorder, advocate for effective treatment and embrace the power of recovery.
