To the residents of Vinalhaven, I am writing to announce my candidacy as a write-in for the town Board of Selectmen. As a prior Board member, I served as Vice Chair and attended classes to further benefit our island through grant writing. I believe our island is a special place for everyone. Our way of life is unique but fragile. Fishing is a staple of our community and as a fellow fisherman, I strive to represent our community and how it should be with fishermen in mind. As an island community we have relatively remained the same group of family and friends that has always been. Our island is a welcoming place with true hospitality, but we're not afraid to tell it like it is. I pledge, if I am elected, to be honest, fair, and impartial in decision making. I would like to see our community embrace the changes we need to but hold onto the values that make us who we are as a whole. With that I ask that you support me on June 13th by writing my name as a write-in candidate. Thank you for your support,
Brandon Osgood

Shoring Up

Why wait upon another to fetch and carry when I can always do it myself until I can't

I need to learn that asking for help not only keeps me humble it is offering a gift to another to serve, to share that to speak of a need is to clarify a necessity that when I'm fearless I can pause to breathe deep and slow the way rivers flow in summer, to buoy above my troubles and lo, just what I was looking for, just whom I needed at that moment shows up to lift me with a smile, a word, a helping hand and it is all simply contagious Hah, a new virus to spread!

Every day I need reminding of who I really am and what we're all here to do while the crops grow and the fishermen haul — to care for myself first so that I can give to others and shore each other up till the next storm arrives.

Tidbits from the Vinalhaven Historical Society

There was a large attendance at the recent Cabaret Ball and Amateur Night sponsored by the Vinalhaven Lions Club. A substantial sum was netted to be used to benefit the baby incubator fund. The amateur program consisted of: "If I'd Known You Were Coming I'd Have Baked A Cake" by Madeline Plante and Glennis Beckman, "Chattanooga Shoe Shine Boy" by Shirley Davis and Charlene Polk, "Everywhere We Go" by Edith Coombs and Joan Woodcock, "Far Away Places" by Charles Polk and "That Lucky Old Sun" by Madeline Plante. Arthur Brown, pianist. June 3, 1950

Several partial sunstrokes were the result of the intense heat here last Saturday. Cyrus Robbins was so affected that he had to be taken into the residence of Hiram Doyle until he recovered from a partial prostration. James Hutchins a paving cutter had a partial sunstroke, but nothing serious resulted from it. Americus Merrithew a paving cutter for W. F. Kittredge was so affected by sunstroke that he fell insensible upon the ground. He was carried to a shed close by and restoratives applied until he recovered consciousness. In the evening he was seemingly all right again. June 21, 1888

Mr. & Mrs. Francis Anthony and daughter, Viva, returned Saturday from Waterville, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Pepper. June 29, 1948

Rosemary Anthony daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Michael Anthony celebrated her 5th birthday Saturday at the home of her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Thompson. Ice Cream and cake were served on the sunporch. Favors were balloons and small candy filled baskets. Rosemary received many gifts. Those present were Karen Lloyd, Leanne Healey, Barbara Webb, Betty Burgess, Barbara White, Roseann Greenlaw, Roxanne Calderwood, Lucy Bickford, Bobby Conway, Sharon Healey, Bobby Williams, Clyde Orcutt, Happy Hansen and Bicky Bickford. June 3, 1949

The Farm Bureau met Tuesday at the G. A. R. rooms with a large attendance. Supper was served featuring a halibut casserole for the main dish. Mrs. Josephine Hopkins, Home Management Leader, spoke on "Convenient Cupboard Space." Charlotte MacDonald, Foods Leader, spoke on "Food Mixes." June 24, 1950

Gerald Brewster, U. S. Army, arrived Monday to spend a furlough with this mother, Mrs. Kenneth Mills. Gerald is the first North Haven boy to return from the battle grounds of Korea. "Cuddy's Band was on hand when the North Haven II docked to greet young Brewster. June 23, 1951

THE OBSERVER
I was always a Red Sox fan as a kid. Frank Malzone, Jimmy Pearsall, Ted Williams; these guys and their heroics were topics of conversation in our family for years. I remained a fan until the 94/95 players strike. The injury I felt at having the entire post season cancelled and the selfishness I perceived in that travesty took the winds of enthusiasm out of my sails and I never watched again until a few years ago when, inexplicably, my wife, took vigorous interest in the Red Sox and for a few years then we hardly missed a game. The only interruption in her otherwise unrelenting support for the team revolved around spitting. The players and managers are like camels, minus the dromedary's pinpoint accuracy. I recall we watched Daniel Nava in his first appearance at bat. Although not spitting at all, he hit the first pitch he'd every seen in the big leagues for a grand slam home run. Then, after having been playing for nearly a month, and, in the interest of team spirit, he began to spit. At first it just dribbled down his chin, typical of a rookie, but soon most of his expulsions were big league projectiles, falling within the broad arc of acceptability that defines that soggy area around home plate. A few days later, when Pedroia singled in the bottom of the ninth, Nava, with the winning run slid into home on his face, the skids having been greased so to speak by his own saliva and that of his peers. pc

Vinalhaven School News!

Dear Vinalhaven Parents and Community:

Parker Dickinson, pictured left, is working on carpentry skills with Mr. Burgess. Parker is one of many students who is gaining career skills at Vinalhaven School or at the Mid-Coast School of Technology. You might be interested in knowing that current students are enrolled in programs for Baking and Pastry, Marine Technology, Tech Communications, Carpentry, and Certified Nurse Assistant.

New teachers, families, and housing! One of the first questions I am asked when potential teacher candidates call to request information regarding jobs at Vinalhaven School is, "Are there options to rent or buy homes for a family?" It's clear this is a big challenge, especially for families. At school we do our best to help interested applicants locate options since many rentals are not listed online. If you are aware of new rentals (year-round or from late Aug. to late June), please call Tina Davidson at 863-4800 ext. 1110 - tina.davidson@vinalhavenschool.org. We don't advise anyone on rental properties. We just share any information we have!

As we approach the end of the school year, look for an opportunity to write a note or say "Thank You" to your Vinalhaven School teachers. They are an extraordinary group!

You may have heard that our school is requesting community support for a modest 2.8% tax increase, which is among the lower school tax increases in the state. That is due to the diligent work of our business office and school board. Any questions? Contact me!

Rent a school bus in the summer? No, the bus will be in for repairs. Historically, there has been an option to rent the local school bus for summer events. For summer 2024, if the bus is ready and we have a driver, we'll inform the community with details.

The new schedule reminder. We are extending each Wednesday 1 hour (8:00 – 3:40). The last day of school is an early release on Friday, June 16. Graduation is 1:00 p.m. June 17th

Job Postings! Vinalhaven School has several positions open, including 3rd Grade Teacher, a long-term substitute for kindergarten, and a possible grant-supported job for someone with strong clerical and organizational skills. Questions? Contact me! Contact our business manager for an application: Tina.Davidson@VinalhavenSchool.org

Did You Know?

Baader-Meinhof Phenomenon

Have you ever learned a word or heard about something, and then everywhere you go it seems that you are hearing that word or seeing that thing all of a sudden? This is the Baader-Meinhof Phenomenon, also known as the frequency illusion or recency bias.

There are two reasons this happens. The first is selective attention, which means your brain is subconsciously seeking out more information on the subject. Second is confirmation bias, which means every time you see something related to the subject, your brain sees it as proof that the subject has gained popularity overnight.

Bottle Brigade

Thanks you for donating your returnable cans and bottles to support Eldercare.

It's a lot of work to sort all the cans and bottles that come in. Here's how you can make our job easier:

- Please, do not put trash or cigarette butts in with your returnables. It's disgusting to sort through!!
- No milk containers, coffee creamer, olive oil bottles or tin cans.
- Not all wine and liquor bottles have a 15¢ sticker or printed notice on the label. Please read the label and check for stickers -if you don't see anything about a 15¢ deposit, put it in the glass recycling bin instead.

Thank you from Bottle Brigade!

If you want to help with sorting, join us on Sundays at 8:30 AM at the barn behind Eldercare. We will train you!
